Rutgers University

The State University of New Jersey

Rutgers, The State University, which began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution, celebrated its Bicentennial Anniversary in 1966. Founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers, Rutgers originally was called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion was experienced after the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

In 1902 a ceramics department was established, New Jersey College for Women with its own New Brunswick campus, was founded in 1918; the School of Education added in 1923; and in 1925 the Extension Division for non-degree education and the School of Journalism were established. The College of Pharmacy was added in 1927, University College, degree-granting evening division, was established in 1934, and Newark University was merged with Rutgers in 1946. In 1945, the State Legislature brought all divisions of Rutgers within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. In 1950, an act of the State Legislature incorporated the College of South Jersey in Camden, including a two-year liberal arts college and a law school, into the State University as the Rutgers College of South Jersey. In April, 1955, N.J.C. was renamed Douglass College. In 1956, under a reorganization program, the University was officially designated, Rutgers, The State University, and came under the management of an 11-man Board of Governors.

Dr. Mason W. Gross, the 16th president of the University, was inaugurated in May, 1959.

Rutgers has grown from about 3,000 students in 1957 to more than double that now. The future, which includes growth at Livingston College, formerly Camp Kilmer, and a new medical school, is aimed at ever-increasing service to the State of New Jersey.

THE CENTENNIAL BROCHURE

Copies of this brochure (until the supply runs out) are available to fans by mail for $1.00 or at the Rutgers Bookstore or Ticket Office for 75 cents. Mail orders should be addressed to: Ticket Office, Rutgers Gym, New Brunswick, N. J. 08903.

Note to Press, Radio and TV

The Sports Information Office of the Rutgers News Service is anxious to serve you. This is true all the time, but especially so this Centennial Year of Intercollegiate Football.

The Rutgers football team will begin its pre-season workouts on Aug. 29. There will be a press-photo day on Aug. 28, tentatively scheduled for 1:30 p.m. We would very much like to take care of all special photo needs on that day.

Please let us know any requests for stories and pictures. Writers are welcomed to camp at any time and press conferences will be held Sunday afternoon following each game.

We hope you will visit with us during this Centennial Season.

Centennial Activities

Intercollegiate football is 100 years old.

As one might expect, we're having a year-long birthday party. Hundreds of colleges and universities have planned festivities to celebrate the anniversary. Many organizations, starting with the National Collegiate Athletic Association, have been hard at work for up to two years planning and preparing for the events which will take place this fall.

Quite naturally, Rutgers has been pitching in wherever possible. It was in New Brunswick on Nov. 6, 1869, that the first intercollegiate game was played. Rutgers and Princeton the original participants, will "do it again" this September 27, the 60th meeting of the teams.

While the Princeton game, of course, is the event of chief significance, Rutgers is planning to feature the Centennial at all of its home games. Different segments of the various publics which make up the world of college football, will be honored each week.

Rutgers and Cornell will honor their All-Americans, Oct. 4. College bands will be in the limelight when Rutgers and Lehigh meet on Oct. 11. The Hall of Fame will stage ceremonies at the Rutgers-Navy game, Oct. 18. The alumni will be saluted at Homecoming against Columbia, Oct. 25. And closing ceremonies and recognition of coaches, managers, the seniors and others close to the game will be held when Rutgers and Colgate meet, Nov. 22.

As for the Princeton festivities, following are some of the significant points:

Commemorative Stamp. Date of issue unannounced, but New Brunswick will be site, possibly during week prior to game.

Parade. A parade of approximately two hours in duration will be held Sept. 26, beginning at 7 p.m. Some 15 musical organizations and some 5,000 marchers are expected to participate. Floats on the Centennial theme will be included. Parade route covers 3½ miles through town.

First Game Re-enactment. Delta Phi of Rutgers and Ivy Club of Princeton, oldest of the fraternities and eating clubs, will stage a first-game replay at 11 a.m., Sept. 27. A portion of this game may be taped and beamed by ABC to other regionally televised games.

Pre-game ceremonies. Will feature NCAA and state dignitaries, Ozzie Nelson, former Rutgers quarterback, as master of ceremonies; Barbara Specht, the Centennial queen; presentation of NCAA medallions; tosses of coin by honorary officials, one with 1869 silver dollar, two with NCAA medallion; remarks by President Mason W. Gross of Rutgers, Robert Goheen of Princeton and Governor Richard J. Hughes.

Halftime: Rutgers and Princeton game captains of the past will be honored; traditional halftime shows by respective bands.

Post-Game: First presentation of the Centennial Trophy, presented jointly by the Classes of 1938 of Rutgers and Princeton, to winning captain.

PRESS HEADQUARTERS

The Holiday Inn, Route 1, New Brunswick, will be headquarters for the Rutgers-Princeton game. Reservations may be made through Sports Information Office. Press reception, approximately 8 p.m., Sept. 26.

TELEVISION

The Rutgers-Princeton game will be regionally televised by ABC. This will be the first time Rutgers has participated in the N.C.A.A. television program.

Rutgers Football: 100 Years Old

Dear Friends:

This is a special year at Rutgers. We are all very proud of the role history has allowed us to play in helping make college football the great game that it is.

We hope this year to pay homage to the past. We also hope that we can build upon the foundation of 100 years and that Rutgers will be able to maintain a position of leadership in intercollegiate athletics, and football, in particular.

We have been planning for 1969 for almost three years and we hope that some of the activities on the schedule will be worthy of your attention, whether you are with the press, radio or television, an alumnus or simply a fan.

Please be assured that we are here to serve you, not just in this, the Centennial Year of Intercollegiate Football, but every year, and we hope that you will not hesitate to call upon us at any time.

As for now, please accept this invitation to join us in celebrating our 100th birthday.

Sincerely,

ALBERT W. TWITCHELL
Director of Athletics

Albert W. Twitchell, Director of Athletics

ALMOST since assuming the directorship of athletics in 1961, when he succeeded Harry J. Rockafeller, Albert W. Twitchell has been planning for the Centennial of Intercollegiate Football. Scheduling, ceremonies, stadium capacity and a multitude of other problems have been his as he has served as chairman of the Rutgers Centennial Committee in addition to fulfilling his regular departmental duties.

A 1935 graduate of Rutgers, Twitchell has been a member of the University staff since 1947 as coach and administrator. He won six varsity letters as an undergraduate, captaining the 1934 football team as center and winning the Donald Leslie Coursen trophy, highest individual athletic award given at the University.

He was varsity lacrosse coach for 12 seasons, putting together a record of 90-31-1 and for several years was an aide in lightweight and varsity football.

He helped organize and is president-elect of the National Association of Athletic Directors.

Rutgers Athletic Administration

Gruninger

Hill

Heilman

Frederick E. Gruninger, Assistant Director

SINCE July, 1968, Fred Gruninger has been Al Twitchell's chief aide. At that point he succeeded Ken Germann, who resigned to become director of athletics at Columbia. A 1953 Rutgers alumnus, Fred served in Alumni Relations for five years, holding the title of Associate Director, before shifting to the Athletic Department in 1964. As an undergraduate he played football and baseball and following his graduation was a golf professional briefly. For six years he has coached the Rutgers varsity golf team, which he has directed to a 66-26-1 record.

Otto H. Hill, Business Manager

A MEMBER OF the Rutgers staff since 1947, Otto Hill was appointed business manager of athletics in 1961. A 1942 graduate of Rutgers, he served in the Army and Air Force during World War II returning to earn his master's degree in 1947. He coached junior varsity and freshman football, moving up to the varsity as end coach in 1953, a post he held through 1955. He was freshman swimming coach from 1947 until 1956, when he succeeded the late Jim Reilly as varsity swimming coach. He relinquished that post to take over his present assignment and direct the University's aquatics program.

Donald Heilman, Assistant to the Director

ALTHOUGH he was scheduled to give up coaching this fall, when he began full-time duties as assistant to the director, Bud Heilman is continuing to serve as a part-time member of John Bateman's staff, working with the defensive linemen. Heilman came to Rutgers in 1966 after six years as head football coach at Kutztown State. He is a graduate of West Chester State.

Supporting Personnel

TEAM PHYSICIAN—Dr. Hyman Copleman; Team Dentist—Dr. Joel Fertig; Head Trainer—Andrew Sivess; Custodian of Equipment—John Powers.

1969 Manager

Terence M. Beachem, who has been an assistant manager since his freshman year at St. Joseph's Prep, is in his second season as head manager. The Franklin Township resident also is lacrosse manager.

The Outlook — 1969

Entering its Centennial season, Rutgers is coming off one of its most successful records, 8-2, and Coach Bateman has among his players several who should rank among the better all-time Rutgers representatives.

But the success or failure of the 1969 team probably will hinge upon the rebuilding of the offensive line, which lost three three-year regulars at graduation.

Defensively, the Scarlet will be largely veteran. The vacancies to be filled are safety, one halfback and a linebacking post. Even if the newcomers initially don't quite measure up to the departed, the expected improvement in a youngish overall unit should put the Scarlet at least on equal footing with the defenders of 1968.

Offensively, the replacement task is more formidable. Not only did three key linemen, who provided excellent passing protection as well as large holes, graduate, but the two starting running backs, including the record-setting Bryant Mitchell, an ECAC All-East pick, are gone.

Rutgers' best athletes probably will be Bruce Van Ness, a 6-3, 210-pound tailback; Rich Policastro, who contributed to nine records as the quarterback in the last five games; and Lee Schneider, a big linebacker with good speed and range.

Offensively, Rutgers was explosive in the final five games last year, scoring 174 points and winning them all. The offensive proficiency coincided with Policastro's succeeding Van Ness at quarterback. Born three miles from Rutgers Stadium, Policastro threw 12 touchdown passes in his five starts, 15 in all, and piled up yardage, completion and TD records.

He appears to ignore the problems which normally face a 5-9 quarterback by releasing quickly and accurately. He could be the best quarterback in the east, at least if statistics mean anything.

Van Ness, a running back originally, suffered through a sophomore year in which he was plagued by a dislocating shoulder. It was repaired by an off season operation. Last year, he opened at quarterback, where he had taken over midway through 1967. He did well enough at the outset, leading the Scarlet over Princeton. But he plateaued, and when Policastro appeared ready, Bruce gave way.

Now, healthy and unburdened by play-calling, etc., he should be ready to do the things everyone has expected of him. Putting it simply, he runs, passes, punts, catches and blocks with a fervor. He has speed and desire and more fortunate events the last two years would have projected him high into the pre-season All-America ballyhoo.

Despite his problems, physical and position-wise, Van Ness has imposing statistics. His passing totals are good for a "halfback" passer, 85 of 231 for 1,160 yards and 10 touchdowns. His rushing figures are tempered by "losses" at quarterback, yet he is 669 yards and six TDs. Thus, he has 1,829 yards and credit for 16 touchdowns. Not bad for a part-time, injured and out-of-position player.

Schneider, at 6-2, 214 pounds, has started every game for two years, as a tackle in 1967, when linemen were scarce, and at his normal linebacking post last year. He is a heady, hungry player and could be among the best in his position.

Other outstanding players include tackle Len Novelli and end Mike Pellowski on defense; and offensive ends Bob Stonebraker and Jim Benedict.

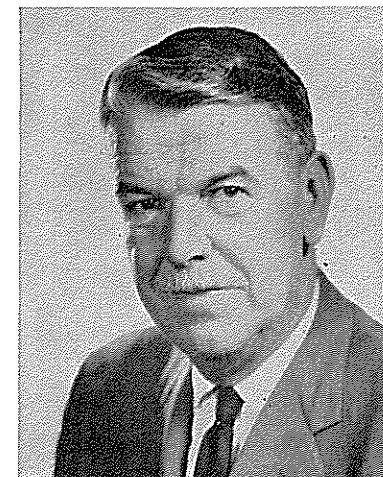

All of Policastro's receivers—Stonebraker, Benedict, flanker Al Fenstermacher and Van Ness are back. Junior Steve Ferrughelli, 6-2, 212 pounds, appears to be a fine fullback prospect. Center John Orrizzi and tackle Mike Kizis are dedicated, hard-working linemen.

The key will be how effectively Bob Coppola, John Langenus and Jim DiGiacinto, or others, if the latter three don't make the grade, fit into the offensive line.

Defensively, Mike Pellowski, Andy Naporano and Rich Bonsall provide end strength, Paul Milea, a late-comer in 1968, is a promising tackle, and linebackers Drew Forgash and Larry Clymer (rover), plus halfback Jim Renshaw are proven varsity players. The newcomers are Kevin O'Connor at linebacker, and Sam Chapman and John Miller in the secondary.

In spring practice, the defensive replacements appeared ahead of their offensive counterparts. One time will tell whether or not the offense can retain its smooth functioning of last season.

A Message From President Gross

DR. MASON W. GROSS

This season colleges all across the land will observe the Centennial of the first game and it goes without saying that Rutgers is proud indeed to have had a part in the origins of intercollegiate football in 1869 and, with Princeton, to play in 1969 a role in the commemorative game.

The rivalry between Princeton and Rutgers men has been long and lively. We look forward to its renewal on the football field this year, but in the context of beginning a second century of spirited competition with an honored neighbor. And all excellent sentiments aside, Rutgers expects to win!

Sincerely yours,

Mason W. Gross

LAFAYETTE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 29; Lettermen Lost: 9

A veteran offense featuring a solid ground game and a fine passing attack hints of improvement on the Leopards' 7-3 record of 1968, their best in 20 years, but Harry Gamble must find replacements for six defensive starters from a unit which shut out four opponents.

Three capable quarterbacks are available in Ed Baker, Rich McKay and Jack Hickl. Fullback Tom Triolo spearheads a sound running game. Co-captain Bob Zimmers and Bob Donofrio provide speed and experience. Mike Miller's 42 catches set a school record and Gary Molchan and Darrell Johnson also can catch.

The offensive line lists veterans Dennis Visich, Ed Pollack, Bob Lambert, Bill Bradfield, Bill Sprecher and Rod Gaumer.

Defensively, end Phil Staum is the only returning lineman and Co-Captain Gary Kolarik the only veteran linebacker, but the critical secondary spots have experience, including All-MAC performer Tom McCombs.

With a sound defensive rebuilding job, the Leopards will vie for Middle Atlantic honors.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 37, Lafayette 7

Near 100-degree heat compounding opening game jitters contributed to a scoreless first period. Settling down in the second quarter, Rutgers put together two 63-yard scoring drives, the first coming on a 3-yard burst by Bryant Mitchell, the second on a short pass from Bruce Van Ness to Mel Brown, giving Rutgers a 14-0 halftime margin.

Jim Julian added a 28-yard field goal to a 41-yard Van Ness to Al Fenstemacher scoring toss for third period scores.

Two quick final period scores were registered as Rich Policastro made his debut with TD passes to flanker John Miller and end John Bauer.

Down 37-0, Lafayette moved 99 yards for a Bob Zimmers score with two minutes remaining.

Mitchell carried the ball 28 times for 125 yards. Van Ness completed 9 of 22 passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns. A portent for later games was Policastro's 3 completions in 3 attempts and 2 TD's.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Of the 64 games played since the series began in 1882, Rutgers has won 35, lost 28, and tied one. (Lafayette's records count a Rutgers default in 1893.)

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 26; Lettermen Lost: 14

A revised coaching staff, led by Jake McCandless, meets the challenge of molding good holdover depth and experience and feels that "the Tiger could become a mean animal as the season progresses."

Heavy losses in the offensive line are balanced by the return of seven of the top offensive backs, a group that includes such fine ball carriers as Captain Ellis Moore, Chris Montgomery, Peter Hauck, Scott McBean, Brian McCollough plus the signal-callers Dan White and Jon Wright. McCollough recorded 1,100 yards of total offense last year and scored 13 touchdowns. Moore has tallied 16 TDs in two seasons.

Defensively, the Tigers have nine defensive starters from the '68 campaign, including tackle Bob Hews, a strong two-year regular, and All-Ivy safety Keith Mauney.

McCandless plans to stay simple in his first season at the Tiger helm and adds that "new ideas exist and adaptations on a theme will be our general policy." There is considerable speculation that McCandless will use a multiple offense—including the T. It's even possible that he will junk the traditional single wing.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 20, Princeton 14

The Scarlet broke a six-year Tiger hex as it vaulted to a quick 10-0 lead. Rutgers took the opening kick-off 62 yards to the Tiger 17, where Jim Julian booted a 34-yard field goal, then came back 4 minutes later, after Rich Bing's interception, to score on Bruce Van Ness' 9-yard dash off tackle.

Princeton retaliated in the second quarter to travel 76 yards and a score on Ellis Moore's seven-yard run. The Scarlet regained its 10-point bulge when Mel Brown gathered in a Van Ness aerial on the five and stepped in for the score.

At 2:26 of the final period, soccer-style kicker Chris Stewart booted a 50-yard field goal, a Rutgers record. John Pollock's interception set the stage.

The Tigers then marched 80 yards on Dick Bracken's thrusts and tallied on Scott McBean's 9-yard run with 18 seconds remaining.

Bryant Mitchell's running and a clutch interception by Pete Savino kept the Tigers at bay after their score.

Mitchell carried 26 times for 108 yards, Bracken 27 for 96.

SERIES RECORD WITH PRINCETON: Rutgers has won 9, Princeton 50 in the oldest collegiate football rivalry, beginning Nov. 6, 1869.

CORNELL PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen, 22; Lettermen Lost: 20

Jack Musick, in his 4th season, counts heavily on newcomers to recoup from last year's 3-6 campaign.

In the offensive line, six starters return, with split-end Rick Furbush and Co-Captain Dennis Huff leading the pack. Senior quarterback Bill Arthur, an impressive runner, averaged 4.3 yards in '68 and can become a steady passer.

Eight defensive starters must be replaced, with only Co-Captain Theo Jacobs, at middle guard, returning up front and Keith Cummins and Tom McLeod in the secondary. Gary Cokins is a strong linebacker and Gary Ervick a rugged end.

Ed Marinaro heads a promising group of new runners.

In Musick's first two seasons, Big Red's 6-3 and 6-2-1 marks were the best Cornell records back-to-back since 1950-51. Two years ago Cornell was third in the Ivy League, but fell to seventh last year.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Cornell 17, Rutgers 16

Rutgers' failure to make a 2-point conversion, as quarterback Bruce Van Ness was stopped on an option play with six minutes left in the game, gave Cornell victory as the teams resumed play after a lapse of 43 years.

Rutgers opened the scoring with a Jim Julian field goal midway in the second period, after twice failing to score from close range. Cornell came back to tie on a kick by Bill Davies. Bryant Mitchell gave the Scarlet the lead again with a twisting 77-yard run seconds before halftime. He had 143 yards in the game.

The Scarlet had John Pollock's 86-yard punt return nullified by a clipping call in the third period.

Late in the period, aided by Rutgers infractions, the Big Red moved 60 yards for a Bill Robertson touchdown. Failing to convert, they trailed 10-9, but scored again on Rick Newton's interception. Robertson converted on a run to put the Ithacans ahead, 17-10.

Seven plays later, Rutgers rallied on a Rich Policastro to Paul Hohne screen pass covering 25 yards, but Van Ness' was stopped on the conversion try.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Cornell leads, 3-1, in a series halted in 1925, but resumed in 1968.

Centennial Festivities

All-Americans of Rutgers and Cornell will be honored at halftime with presentations. Other "greats" also will be invited.

All-Americans

Four Rutgers players have been selected as All-Americans by recognized national agencies.

They are Paul Robeson, Homer Hazel, Bill Austin and Alex Kroll.

Robeson, an end, was selected in 1918 to become the first Rutgers player so honored.

Hazel, who died last year, was selected in 1923 and 1924, the first time as an end, the next year at fullback.

It wasn't until 1958 that another Rutgers player was selected. Austin, who played tailback in the single wing, was selected 11 years ago at a halfback position.

And in 1961, when Rutgers completed a 9-0 season, Kroll was named to the center spot, earning first-team ranking on seven of the nine nationally-named teams.

There have been several others to achieve national honors, but not first team. Henry (Heinie) Benkert, a halfback in 1924, was a second team All-American as the leading scorer in the east.

Jack Grossman, a halfback in 1931, and Bob (Nasty) Nash, a tackle in 1915, were other high choices.

Among the all-cast players have been Frank Burns, quarterback, 1948; Leon Root, center, 1950; Jim Monahan, fullback, 1951; Bob Simms, end, 1959; Jack Emmer, end, 1966; and Bryant Mitchell, halfback, 1968.

LEHIGH PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 31; Lettermen Lost: 7

Lehigh enjoyed its most successful season since 1962 last year and, with 31 lettermen, the outlook is optimistic for the Engineers.

Fred Dunlap's power-I attack features Jim Petrillo and Jack Paget, used alternately last year. Both juniors, they accounted for 1,416 yards and 16 touchdowns from the tailback slot. Petrillo was All-MAC as a sophomore.

Up front, the Engineers have veteran tackles Reggie Jennings and Thad Jamula, center Jim Ferketic, ex-fullback Justin Plummer at tight end, split end Mike Leib, and guards George Mears and Miles Belic, all lettermen. A top newcomer is soph center John Hill.

The defense is led by tackles Paul Koepff and Bob Fonte, ends Pete Tomaino and Mike Holva, and linebackers Jim Smith, Chuck Lieb and George Nicholson. All are lettermen and are backed up by veterans.

Dunlap will field the biggest Lehigh squad in many years, both in size and numbers.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 29, Lehigh 26

Two pass interceptions led to Scarlet scores as Rutgers gained its 11th straight win over the Engineers, although Bryant Mitchell, the nation's 10th leading rusher at the time, did not play.

Bob Stonebraker grabbed Bruce Van Ness' four-yard scoring toss as the first quarter came to an end, and Rutgers extended its lead on Paul Hohne's short TD scamper after Pete Savino intercepted an errant Lehigh pass. The lead was cut in half when Jack Paget scored from the two 10 seconds before intermission.

Hohne boosted Rutgers lead to 20-7 on a 31-yard cutback, but Lehigh came right back, Paget getting his second TD on a 10-yard sweep.

John Pollock's interception and 54-yard return to the end zone, and a safety, gave Rutgers a 29-14 lead, but Lehigh refused to quit. Paget brought Lehigh close with two more TD's, both from four yards out, the second with only 2:47 left in the game. The Engineers missed a close-in field goal which would have tied the game.

Subbing for Mitchell, Hohne gained 126 yards in 27 carries.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Rutgers leads in the series, 38-26-1.

NAVY'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 16; Lettermen Lost: 18

In his first season at Navy, Rich Forzano inherits 16 lettermen, 11 of whom were starters in the finale against Army last year. Lacking defensive depth, Navy has converted several offensive performers in an effort to rebound from a 2-8 season.

To run the offense, Forzano has Mike McNallen, who hung up impressive statistics as a sophomore. McNallen ranked 23rd among the nation's passers with 1,342 yards on 124 completions.

Dan Pike, the top rusher in '68, and converted flanker Karl Schwelm, man the running back positions in the wide-set offense.

Navy's strong suit could be its fleet of pass receivers—Scott Monson, Ron Laning and Harry Landau. The remainder of the offensive line are veteran tackles Jeff Krstich and Mike Hecovich, guards Tim Coccozza and Chuck Boyer, and center Don Gunther.

A 4-3 defense puts tough Ray DeCario at the middle linebacker spot and has veterans Tom O'Brien and Bill McKinney as cornermen.

LAST GAME: Rutgers 0, Navy 0 (1910)

Rutgers last played Navy in 1910, the contest ending in a scoreless tie. The 1912 Scarlet Letter, the Rutgers yearbook, gives the following "impartial" account of the clash:

"On October 8 the team journeyed down to Annapolis to meet the Navy and played to another 0-0 score. The game was a virtual victory for Rutgers, as we actually made a touchdown, of which we were robbed by a partial referee."

The 1910 team, captained by Howard A. Smith '10 and featuring later captains James K. Alverson '12, Theodore Van Winkle '13 and John P. Toohey '16, compiled a 3-2-3 record, outscoring its opponents 59-33. The season showed wins over Swarthmore, St. Lawrence and Stevens with losses to N.Y.U. and Washington. Curiously, the Scarlet played three scoreless ties. The games with Franklin and Marshall and Haverford also were scoreless.

The 1912 Scarlet Letter describes the campaign waged 59 years ago as "one of the best in the annals of Rutgers history . . . Great credit is certainly due Coach (Howard) Gargan, who developed only mediocre material into a first-class fighting machine."

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Navy leads Rutgers, 5-0-1, with the tie coming in the last game between the teams. This will be the first meeting in 59 years.

The National Football Hall of Fame will conduct halftime ceremonies which will include presentation of proclamations by governors of the 50 states to the Hall of Fame. Midshipmen from each of the states will take part in the ceremonies, which will be attended by many of the former greats elected to the Hall of Fame.

Hawaii Trip Planned

There are some trips and some new opponents in Rutgers football future.

Highlight of the special games announced recently by Athletic Director Al Twitchell is a home-and-home series with the University of Hawaii, including a visit to the Island on Nov. 30, 1974, the Saturday following Thanksgiving, and Hawaii's visit to New Brunswick, Oct. 4, 1975.

Continuing its recent interest in meeting the service academies, Rutgers will visit the Air Force Academy, Nov. 10, 1973, and will entertain the Falcons the following year on Oct. 26.

Also in 1974-75, Rutgers will play William and Mary, in Williamsburg, Oct. 19, 1974, and home, Oct. 18, 1975, and will play Army, Nov. 6, 1971, in West Point, and Oct. 21, 1972, in New Brunswick.

Twitchell plans to arrange, in cooperation with a travel company, a money-saving tour for alumni and friends interested in making the visit to Hawaii. In that year, Rutgers will play 11 games, according to N.C.A.A. regulations permitting an extra game for a team visiting Hawaii.

Details about the Hawaii junket will be forthcoming in the near future.

The Air Force and Hawaii will be new Rutgers foes. Rutgers has met Army in a recent four-game series and played William and Mary last in 1957.

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 20; Lettermen Lost: 13

Despite the loss of the team's leading passer, receiver and runner, Coach Frank Navarro, in his second season, is hoping to lead the Lions well up the Ivy ladder with a strong nucleus of lettermen and a host of promising sophomores.

Included among the 20 returnees are 14 starters, including six offensive linemen—tackles Frank Furillo and Jim Wascara, guards Bob Hackett and Mike Shane, center Keith Burd, and Bill Wazevich, the second-leading receiver in the Ivy League.

Co-captain Ken Alexander has switched from the defensive backfield to tailback to remedy a depleted offensive corps and joins letterman Paul Burlingame. Sophomores Jeff Doolittle and John Daurio are prime candidates to succeed quarterback Marty Domres. The fullback is Kevin Brown.

On defense, the Lions have letter-winners in ends Art Malley, Ray Ramsey and Bill Reed, middle guard Bill Boczkowski, and linebackers Dick Alexander and Joe Topnich, plus Jeff Blake and Lenny Hammers in the defensive secondary.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 28, Columbia 17

After the rain-soaked loss to Army, Rutgers faced a Columbia team which hadn't won a game since besting the Scarlet in 1967. The teams put on an aerial show, featuring Rich Policastro's debut as a starting quarterback facing the celebrated Marty Domres. Both fared well.

Policastro passed to Bob Stonebraker for two TD's, a first period 39-yard connection and a two-yarder in the second. Domres smashed several records, completing 18 of 37 for 193 yards, including an eight-yard toss to Bob Werner to tie the game at 14-all at halftime.

Rutgers took a 21-14 lead midway in the third period as Policastro passed the Scarlet to the Lion 8 where Bryant Mitchell circled right end for the score. But Domres moved his team quickly to the Rutgers 31 where Rich Ross kicked a 39-yard field goal, ending the day's scoring for the Lions.

Mitchell's second TD of the day put the game out of the Lions' reach. It added six yards to his total of 153 in 29 carries.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: In football's second oldest rivalry, which began in 1870, Columbia has won 19, lost 17, tied 5.

Delaware led the nation's small colleges in rushing during the 1968 season, averaging 315.8 yards per game. The Hens were also fifth in total offense with 441.9 yards per contest as they were crowned champions of the Middle Atlantic Conference.

Tubby Raymond will have to replace only one man on the starting offensive unit and only four members of the defense. After a 7-3 record during the regular season, which earned the Blue Hens the Lambert Cup, they overcame Indiana (Pa.) 31-24, in Atlantic City's Boardwalk Bowl and were named NCAA College Division Atlantic Coast Regional Champion.

The offense will be led by quarterback Tom DiMuzio and fullback Chuck Hall. DiMuzio set the season total offense record of 1,596 yards in 1968. Hall established school and conference rushing records.

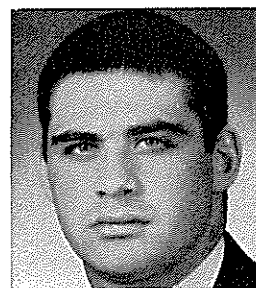

The defense is led by All-East linebacker John Favero and cornerback Joe Purzycki, the captain.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 23, Delaware 14

The teams entered the contest with identical 4-2 records.

Bryant Mitchell and Mel Brown combined for 277 rushing yards, Mitchell accounting for 160 in 30 carries, Brown 117 in 16. Rich Policastro threw his sixth TD pass for the year. Rutgers bolted to a 3-0 lead when Larry Clymer recovered a Delaware fumble at the visitors' 33, setting up a Jim Julian field goal. With 48 seconds to go in the half, a wild fumble sequence found the ball at the Scarlet 18 where Delaware moved to the three, setting up Tom DiMuzio's score to put the Hens in front 7-3.

Rutgers struck quickly after intermission as Mitchell went off tackle on an 84-yard TD romp. But Delaware responded with a 57-yard march, DiMuzio slipping a 6-yard TD toss to Dick Kelley to regain the lead, 14-10.

After a punt exchange, Policastro sent his charges ahead to stay with a 35-yard scoring pass to Jim Benedict.

Five minutes into the final period, Brown raced 30 yards on a pitchout, setting up Mitchell's second TD on a one-yard plunge.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Rutgers leads the series, 14-10-3, including wins the last two years.

CONNECTICUT PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 15; Lettermen Lost: 16

Co-champions of the Yankee Conference in 1968, Connecticut suffered major losses in the defensive unit and John Toner will fill the gaps with what he believes to be an "unusually fine" sophomore group.

Outstanding among the 15 returning lettermen are power runner Vinney Clements, Co-captain Ralph Tiner at defensive end, giant tackle Chuck Goode, middle guard Phil Doran, roverbak Mike Zito and offensive guard Bill Spencer.

Clements, the ECAC sophomore of the year in 1968, is one of the East's top candidates for a national award this year. He gained 962 yards last campaign and makes coverage doubly difficult as he is also an excellent receiver.

The Huskies are strong in the interior lines both offensively and defensively with outstanding sophomores Bill Tuzil, Bernie Lefkowitz, Randy Hooks and Richie Savage.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 27, Connecticut 15

Three touchdown passes by Rich Policastro and Bryant Mitchell's sixth 100-plus rushing game led to Scarlet scores in each period, pushing its record to 6-2.

Policastro connected with Jim Benedict on a first period TD toss of 10 yards after John Orrizzi fell on a Huskies' fumble. Jim Julian earlier booted a 29-yard field goal.

But Connecticut quickly brought the count to 10-7 as Dick Robustelli's passes set up a Vince Clements TD. Immediately after the ensuing kick-off, Policastro threw 31 yards to Benedict to give Rutgers a 17-7 lead at halftime.

Rutgers lengthened the lead on a third period Policastro aerial to Bob Stonebraker, after a fumble recovery by Mike Pellowski.

Clements then climaxed a 73-yard Huskie drive with a 22-yard dash for his second score. Julian's 22-yard field goal closed out matters.

Mitchell gained 157 in 33 chances, Clements 137 yards in 24 and Policastro hit on 17 of 30 passes (both Rutgers records) for 219 yards.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Rutgers has won nine of the eleven games played.

HOLY CROSS PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 23; Lettermen Lost: 8

Bill Whitton installs a new offense as he steps in as the Crusaders 21st head coach, and faces the problem of replacing ace passer Phil O'Neil and All-East end Bob Neary.

Veteran backfields, both offensively and defensively are present, led by Steve Jutras, the Crusaders' top ground-gainer and scorer last year. Co-captain Tom Lamb is a strong runner at fullback and seniors Charlie Lynch and Ed Murphy are capable receivers. Mark Mowatt, a junior quarterback, saw considerable service last season. Mike Jordan developed into one of the East's top safeties in 1968.

In the offensive line, vets fill every position except split end. Pete Stratton and Jim McClowry provide great hands at the ends, Gary Brackett and co-captain Bill Moncevic man the tackle posts with guards Doug Kane and Sean Higgins and center Vic Lewadowsky composing a strong alignment.

Defensively, both ends, Brian Powers and Bob Picpul, are fine pass rushers and tackles Tom Walmsley and Ed McGilvery are extremely mobile. Mark Doherty and Fran Kitteridge have experience as linebackers as do halfbacks Bill Stachowski, Tom Doyle and Jack O'Sullivan.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 41, Holy Cross 14

Down 14-7 at halftime, Rutgers scored five second half touchdowns against the Crusaders and set several team records. Safety John Pollock opened the record onslaught with a longest-ever 73-yard punt return to give the Scarlet an early lead. Undaunted, Holy Cross scored twice on one-yard plunges by Steve Jutras.

Rutgers controlled the ball for 29 plays in the third period, putting together scoring drives of 58, 52 and 62 yards. Bryant Mitchell's scoring scampers of 6 and 20 yards surrounded an 11-yard TD toss from Policastro to Bob Stonebraker.

In the final period, a 35-yard explosion by Mitchell set up a Policastro to Al Fenstermacher TD before the reserve backfield engineered another score as Mike Yancheff boomed over from the three.

Mitchell's 152 yards in 26 carries gave him 1,058 for the season and 2,140 career yards, both Rutgers records. Policastro's two scoring tosses put him at 11 for the season. The Crusaders' Steve Jutras totaled 132 yards in 28 carries.

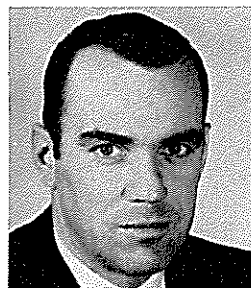

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: The rivalry shows Holy Cross ahead, 10-3, although the teams have split the last four games.

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 21; Lettermen Lost: 14

Neil Wheelwright, in his second year at the helm, has chosen to build his offense around the strong right arm of junior Steve Goepel, who will succeed the departed Ron Burton.

Captain Al Klumpp has great ability as a flanker and will be on the receiving end of most of Goepel's passes. Earl Perlmutter and Randy Mackensie, along with a contingent of sticky-fingered sophs also will be targets.

Fixtures along the offensive line are guard Ken Giffune, center Fred Baser and tackle Pete Burbulis.

At the running halfback, Dom Fisher, who led the team in rushing with 731 yards, and set an NCAA endurance record with 54 carries against Bucknell, is back.

Defensively, Bill Glenn will anchor the five-man front from his middle guard spot, flanked by Phil Corrinet and Jim Locke at tackles and Dick Schaefer and either John Vogt or Larry Young at the ends. In the secondary are four lettermen—Clark McKissock, Chuck Fox and Fred Wendel. Eric Anderson and Frank Migliorino are experienced linebackers.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 55, Colgate 34

Rutgers scored within 3:06 of each period, totaled eight touchdowns in all and combined with the Red Raiders for 89 points as records tumbled right and left.

Rich Policastro threw touchdown passes of 59, 34, 36 and 60 yards to four different receivers—Fenstermacher, Stonebraker, Brown and Hohne, to total 15 for the season. Bryant Mitchell piled up 173 yards in 23 carries to cap his record-smashing year.

Bruce Van Ness contributed a 51-yard scoring toss to Fenstermacher and a 38-yard touchdown gallop. Safety John Pollock pilfered three Colgate aeriels to run his season mark to nine. Paul Hohne tallied the final Scarlet score on a 36-yard end sweep.

The Rutgers offense totalled 629 yards, 400 of them in passing, both team records. Policastro was 12 for 20 and 309 yards. Colgate's Fischer carried 29 times for 137 yards.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Colgate leads 12-10 in the series which began in 1933.

The Leading Scarlet Knights

Ends

JOE BARONE, senior. The starting quarterback as a freshman in 1966, Joe was moved as a sophomore to an offensive end spot, where he has proved a dependable reserve. He caught one touchdown pass last year . . . looking toward grad school, he is a Romance Languages major.

JOHN BAUER, junior. John was an All-stater with a background in baseball and basketball at Delbarton. Big and strong, he may be seen also at a tackle spot on offense this year . . . Father serves as head coach and athletic director at Randolph Township . . . An Education major, plans to coach.

JIM BENEDICT, senior. After sitting out the 1967 season as a transfer student from V.M.I., Jim caught 19 passes for 315 yards and four touchdowns last year. A seasoned veteran, he was a Berkeley Hts. halfback and has a responsible role in the Scarlet aerial game . . . Follows the curriculum in Physical Education.

RANDY BOKESCH, junior. After spending last season as a defensive end reserve, Randy showed well last spring on offense . . . Was three-sport athlete in Youngstown, Ohio. He probably will spell Bob Stonebraker . . . Majors in Environmental Sciences.

RICK BONSALE, senior. A two-year veteran, Rick provides experience on defense . . . Is hoping to bounce back from off-season shoulder operation. A former fullback, he was the most valuable athlete at Franklin Township High . . . Pursues a Mechanical Engineering degree.

LOU MARTIRE, sophomore. An impressive spring practice showing boosted Lou's stock and he can be expected to see occasional action on defense . . . Converted from high school experience as a back . . . Enrolled in College of Agriculture.

ANDY NAPORANO, junior. Lettering as a defensive end as a sophomore, Andy gets as much out of his 190 pounds as anyone . . . Prepped at Lawrenceville Prep and Millburn High . . . Varsity regular in lacrosse . . . His uncle, Tony, played for Rutgers (1934-36) and coached at Barringer in Newark for 23 years . . . Enrolled in pre-law curriculum.

MIKE PELLOWSKI, junior. Mike earned honors at Franklin Township High as the best all-around athlete. He broke into the first defensive unit last year and is considered one of the team's toughest players . . . Went 5 for 5 as a pinch hitter on the Scarlet baseball team . . . Physical Education major.

BOB STONEBRAKER, senior. With a background that includes wrestling and baseball, Bob was the leading Scarlet receiver last year with 31 receptions for 448 yards and six touchdowns. An outdoorsman, he is interested in hunting, fishing and camping, products of his Central Pa. background . . . Majoring in Physical Education.

Tackles

JOHN ANGELILLO, senior. One of the biggest players on the squad, Angelillo is hoping to provide back-up strength along the defensive line. A chess fanatic . . . Looks to a degree in Business Administration . . . Plans to attend graduate school.

MURRAY BAKST, junior. After trials at center and linebacker, Murry moves in behind Kizis at offensive tackle, where he had an impressive spring . . . A high school All-Stater at Teaneck, he also wrestled and competed in track . . . Wants to teach after grad school . . . Enrolled in Agricultural Business curriculum.

JIM DiGIACINTO, senior. Moved from offense to defense last year, Jim finds himself now back at the offensive slot which he prefers. Prepped at Fork Union Military Academy (Va.), which he credits with his competitive spirit and confidence . . . An articulate player, he worked carrying concrete in Bethlehem, Pa., for the summer . . . Business Administration major.

JON KARRACKER, sophomore. Moving up from the freshman squad, Jon has the quickness essential for defense and should be a dependable reserve this year, perhaps more. His background at Ridgewood includes wrestling and baseball . . . Wants to coach . . . History major.

MIKE KIZIS, junior. Mike annexed a first unit spot on offense early last season and is determined to remain, despite lack of beef. He compensates with the agility aided in part by lacrosse and wrestling . . . The Randolph product pursues an Electrical Engineering career.

GARY MARTIN, sophomore. Gary leaped into contention for a defensive tackle post on the strength of a fine freshman season and a good spring showing. With the addition of a few summer pounds, could be of major help . . . An aviation bug . . . Majors in Environmental Sciences.

PAUL MILEA, junior. Paul gained telling defensive experience last year and added poundage to rate fixture status. Could be key player in success of defensive unit . . . A high school fullback, he lettered as a heavyweight wrestler . . . Majors in Wildlife Conservation for which he is a compelling spokesman.

LEN NOVELLI, senior. Almost from his first day on the varsity, Len has been a regular. The only exception was early in 1967, when a hairline arm fracture cost him two games. Not overpowering, Len is a relentless pass rusher who relies on agility to outmaneuver bigger, stronger offensive players . . . A History major, he plans on a banking career.

Guards

BOB COPPOLA, junior. Though small as guards go, Bob employs his quickness to best advantage. He has been moved from a reserve linebacker post to the first unit guard slot. Excelled in baseball in high school but has disdained diamond here . . . Contemplates law school . . . A Political Science major.

FRANK GROZNIK, sophomore. With the top four 1968 guards gone, the ability Groznik displayed in spring practice was heartening to the Rutgers coaches . . . Comes from one of those Pennsylvania specialty towns, "Moon Run." . . . Majoring in Landscape Architecture.

JOHN LANGENUS, junior. "J. L." lettered in track as a shot putter and takes over the vacant first unit post. He was state champ in shot at Summit High . . . Father a Rutgers grad and football player . . . Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity president, he is considering a VISTA stint . . . Majors in English.

BRUCE ROCKWELL, junior. A Parochial All-Stater at Seton Hall Prep, Rocky lettered in wrestling last year . . . A frosh regular in 1966, he has been searching for a position . . . Will be guard this fall . . . Majoring in Chemical Engineering.

Centers

JOHN ORRIZZI, senior. John had some early problems last fall after a sophomore year as a reserve, but improved rapidly and now is a fixture. A solid athlete and student, he excelled as a lacrosse defenseman and is co-captain-elect of the stickmen this year . . . Fine leader . . . Plans to become an FBI agent . . . A Sociology major.

GARY TINNEY, junior. A three-sport figure in high school and a scholar athlete, Gary will provide experienced back-up pivot strength behind Orrizzi, presuming takeover next year . . . Has added 15 pounds in a year . . . Sociology major.

Linebackers

BRILL BEIERLE, junior. A jayvee last year, Brill got a thorough workout in the spring game, when Drew Forgash suffered a minor injury, and was in on many plays. Is much improved over last year and will provide dependable strength . . . History major.

STEVE BOYD, junior. Steve will be a key reserve behind a veteran crew at this important position. A hockey performer at Waltham, Mass., and a Scarlet stick-man last year, he follows a curriculum in Aquatic Biology, intending to become a marine biologist.

LARRY CLYMER, junior. Lacking height (5'8"), Larry compensates in rover back spot with great quickness and an eagerness for contact . . . Recipient of several "Blue Max" awards last year for hard hitting . . . Developed strength by weight lifting, surprisingly strong . . . His uncle, Bruce, was a Rutgers halfback in '50's . . . Majors in History.

DREW FORGASH, senior. A strong component of the veteran linebacking corps, Drew had two interceptions last year and was near the top in individual tackles. Intense on the field, he is easy-going otherwise . . . His father, a professor of Entomology, is a Rutgers alumnus . . . Is studying Landscape Architecture.

KEVIN O'CONNOR, junior. Well thought of as a sophomore, Kevin will succeed Rich Bing in calling the defensive alignments . . . Was one of outstanding Long Island scholastic players in 1966, earning honors as a fullback and linebacker. Hopes for a career in business . . . Majors in Agricultural Business.

SAM PICKETTS, sophomore. A Chief Logan, Pa., performer in three sports and preferring basketball next to football, Sam was tried at fullback last spring, but showed linebacking aptitude . . . A Liberal Arts major.

GREG SIVESS, junior. A three-sport standout at South River, Greg is the son of the popular head trainer and former football, basketball and baseball standout at Rutgers, Andy Sivess. He has been moved from a guard position and likes his new home . . . Showed well in spring game . . . Majoring in Agriculture.

LEE SCHNEIDER, senior. A defensive mainstay for two years, Lee is probably the strongest man in the defensive unit. With true veteran status, he could be an "All" choice in the East . . . Was the Scarlet's outstanding defender several times last year . . . Able leader, has started every game . . . Good size and mobility . . . Enrolled in Agricultural Business curriculum.

LARRY WALSH, junior. A former offensive halfback, Larry will provide aid to Clymer at the "Rover" or "Knight" position. He was a midfielder for the varsity lacrosse team last spring . . . A History major.

Quarterbacks

RICH POLICASTRO, senior. Rich passed his team to a 20-6 victory in the spring game and last year, set six aerial records—yardage (994), TD's (15), TD's in a game (4), yardage passing in a game (309), passes attempted in a game (30) and passes completed in a game (17). Could be the best quarterback in the East, if statistics and "wins" tell the story . . . Has total confidence of and in teammates . . . Is enrolled in Agricultural Business curriculum.

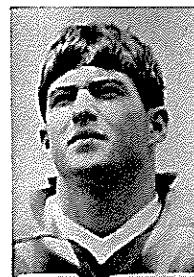

MIKE YANCHEFF, junior. At 6'4", 210, Mike has pro quarterback size and an accurate and strong right arm. He makes the future bright for another year and will gain valuable work in the back-up spot . . . Excellent punter, strong runner, great attitude . . . Majors in Landscape Architecture.

Running Backs

BILL DONALDSON, sophomore. Without varsity experience, Bill jumped into reserve status in spring practice with his excellent power running. He was a basketball and track performer in high school. Probably will be at fullback, although played tailback as a frosh . . . Wants to teach, is a History major.

BOB DuBOIS, junior. Unheralded as a freshman, Bob played jayvee ball last year, and with hard work has become the backup tailback . . . A pole vaulter in high school . . . Interested in art, and follows an engineering curriculum.

STEVE FERRUGHELLI, junior. Steve played behind Mel Brown last year and hopes "to fill his shoes" . . . Had an exceptional spring practice. Gained 163 yards in spring game . . . Devoted to weight lifting . . . A bruising runner, he has the size and adequate speed . . . Chance for stardom . . . A major in Animal Science.

Forgash

Novelli

Schneider

Renshaw

LARRY ROBERTSON, sophomore. A touted three-sport performer in high school, Larry vaulted into contention with his determined running in the spring game. 1-2 as tailback on frosh, also sparked defensively . . . He is enrolled in College of Agriculture and Environmental Science, emphasizing Meteorology.

BRUCE VAN NESS, senior. ECAC sophomore of the year as a quarterback but now happier as a full-time runner, Bruce is true triple-threat back and, depending on his efforts, could be an All-American candidate . . . He received the two top lacrosse awards last year for 27 goals and 16 assists . . . Blocks and catches well, has great attitude, is easily coached . . . Majors in Agricultural Business.

Flanker Backs

AL FENSTEMACHER, junior. Al emerged last year as an exciting wide receiver, second best of the record-setting corps with 22 grabs for 432 yards and three touchdowns. Still developing, full of confidence, good speed and maneuverability . . . Played three sports in high school . . . A major in Forestry.

EARL "JOE" SCHLAFFER, sophomore. A high school quarterback, known as "Sniper" Joe Schlafer, played basketball and ran track at Penn's Grove . . . Fine size for the position where he will understudy Fenstemacher and offer relief work . . . An Environmental Science major.

Defensive Backs

SAM CHAPMAN, junior. Fully recovered from a freshman leg injury, Sam shows bright promise as a safety man and is determined to do the job left vacant by John Pollock's departure. Ready to learn, he possesses fine speed and reaction . . . All-state at Elizabeth and mention on All-American . . . Majoring in Agricultural Business.

GARY FISHER, senior. The Toronto, Ohio, athlete was a high school hurdler as well as a standout performer in football and basketball. Gary gives valuable relief service in the defensive secondary . . . A Business Administration major.

JOHN MILLER, junior. Converted from last year's position as a flanker, the Coral Gables, Fla., resident caught on fast in spring drills . . . Listed as a starter at halfback, he could double as a flanker if needed . . . His father was a Rutgers lightweight football performer . . . Majoring in Liberal Arts.

BOB SHUTTE, sophomore. Bob received notable honors in three sports at Indian Hills High and played safety on the freshman squad last year. Given a shot at a defensive assignment, he responded in excellent fashion and he could be the number one reserve in the secondary . . . Agricultural Business major.

RICH SPIZUOCO, junior. A lacrosse letterman last year and a former quarterback, Rich carries fine credentials to his battle for the safety position . . . Intends to go to law school, now a Business Administration student.

JIM RENSHAW, senior. A defensive veteran, Jim plays with great poise and respected judgment and is a keen competitor . . . Runnemede's "athlete of the year" in 1966, he makes few mistakes and plays aggressively . . . A Journalism major.

Kicker

CHRIS STEWART, junior. A side-saddle booter, Chris developed the style from his high school soccer experience . . . Toured England with an all-star soccer squad . . . Also may handle some of the punting chores . . . Booted a 50-yard field goal against Princeton last year for a Rutgers record . . . Tennis enthusiast . . . Liberal Arts student.

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

John F. Bateman, Head Coach

AN OVERALL mark of 51-32 and three outstanding teams—9-0 in 1961, 8-1 in 1960 and 8-2 in 1968—are the highlights of the nine years John Bateman has spent as head coach of Rutgers football.

Bateman brought instant success here from three years as an assistant at Penn and 11 years as an aide to Lou Little at Columbia. His first two teams won 17 of 18 games and Bateman, himself, asked, "What do we do for an encore?"

The Scarlet then ran into some lean years, just about breaking even. Last year, things began clicking again and Rutgers earned fifth place in the East with its 8-2 record and won its last five games. "That was my most satisfying season as a coach," Bateman said.

A native New Jersey, Bateman attended Central High and St. Benedict's Prep in Newark before entering Columbia in 1934. He played guard under Little at Morningside Heights, captaining the 1937 Lion eleven. After three years in the Navy and three years of coaching at Middletown, N. Y., High School, he joined Little's staff at his alma mater in 1940.

When Bateman first came to Rutgers, he installed the double-wing T which had been successful at Penn under Steve Sebo. In recent years, the Scarlet has changed to a balanced line T attack, including the "I" and split backfields. "You can't stand pat. Defenses catch up with offenses and new (old) wrinkles must be tried," Bateman says.

Named in 1961 as "Coach of the Year" by the Washington, D. C., Touchdown Club, Bateman holds a master's degree in political science and a doctorate in education from Columbia. To many, he is known as "Doctor John."

Bateman and his wife, Anita, have three sons and are grandparents.

Frank Burns, Associate Head Coach

FRANK BURNS assumed a new job in 1968 and in the process, lost some of his records. Appointed as Associate Head Coach by Bateman, Burns continued to direct the offense and his number one pupil, Rich Policastro, proceeded to wipe some of Burns' passing records off the Rutgers books. This is Burns' third term on the Rutgers coaching staff. Immediately after concluding a spectacular college career as a quarterback, he became a freshman aide in 1949. He left here for a two-year stint as head coach at Johns Hopkins, returned in 1956, then spent four years as head coach at Chatham High School. He joined Bateman's staff in 1961. A native of Roselle Park, Burns earned All-East honors as a quarterback and played in the East-West and Herald Tribune Shrine games, earning the most valuable player trophy in the latter.

Robert Naso, Defensive Coach

BOB NASO became defensive coordinator in 1968, his third job as a member of John Bateman's staff. Originally the freshman coach, a post he held three years, Naso became defensive line coach in 1964 and last year took charge of defensive planning. Naso, who also is the head lacrosse coach, excelled in football and lacrosse as an undergraduate. An All-American in the latter sport, he has a 57-36-1 record as coach. Last year, he was head coach of the North team in the all-star game.

William J. Speranza, Defensive Backs

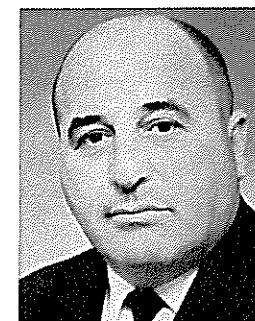

SUCCESS has followed Bill Speranza's football career. As a senior quarterback, he helped guide Rutgers to an undefeated record (9-0 in 1961). His last of four seasons as Rutgers freshman coach (1967) the record was 5-0. And in 1968, when he took charge of the defensive backs, Rutgers went 8-2 and his pass defenders held the opposition to only five touchdowns via the air—three in the last game. Speranza, who coached for two years in his native Bethlehem, Pa., was an outstanding baseball catcher for Rutgers in addition to playing football.

Naso

James Taigia, Offensive Line

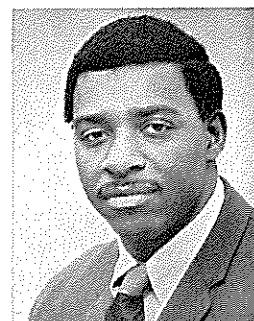

NEW TO the staff in 1968, Jim Taigia this fall takes over direction of the offensive line, facing a giant rebuilding task. Graduation took its greatest toll in these ranks. A teammate of Frank Burns' during their Rutgers playing days under Harvey Harman, Taigia coached at Piscataway, Hillside and Rahway High Schools before returning to his alma mater. He was a guard as a college player. While a high school coach, he was active as a basketball official.

Sampson Brown, Freshman Coach

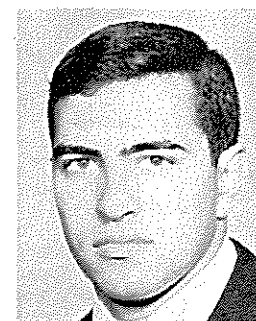

AFTER TWO years as assistant freshman coach, with responsibilities for coaching the linemen, Sam Brown takes over this fall as head freshman coach. A native and resident of Rahway, Sam came to Rutgers in 1964 as a 24-year-old sophomore and after seven years away from competition, made the varsity as a defensive lineman in 1965 and 1966. Sam has been active in community work and this summer served as director of the N.C.A.A.-sponsored Rutgers Summer Youth Program.

Peter Savino, Assistant Freshman Coach

NEWEST MEMBER of the Rutgers staff is Pete Savino, who has been singled out since his arrival as a player at Rutgers in 1965 as "coaching material." A great at Perth Amboy High School, Pete played quarterback, end and defensive back for Rutgers and will handle the freshman backs. He will be doing graduate study in addition to coaching.

Brown

Savino

Junior Varsity

Jack Hohnstine, former Rutgers guard and full-back, and Bob Regan, who played at Kutztown State, serve as part-time staff members, directing the scouting team and junior varsity.

The First Game, by Arnold Friberg, courtesy of Chevrolet.

The Foot-Ball Match

(The following is reprinted from the November, 1869, issue of The Targum, the Rutgers student paper, which, with football, was born in that year.)

On Saturday, November 6th, Princeton sent twenty-five picked men to play our twenty-five a match game of foot-ball. The strangers came up in the 10 o'clock train, and brought a good number of backers with them. After dinner, and a stroll around the town, during which stroll billiards received a good deal of attention, the crowds began to assemble at the ball ground, which, for the benefit of the ignorant, we would say, is a lot about a hundred yards wide, extending from College Avenue to Sicard-street. Previous to calling the game, the ground presented an animated picture. Grim-looking players were silently stripping, each one surrounded by sympathizing friends, while around each of the captains was a little crowd, intent upon giving advice, and saying as much as possible. The appearance of the Princeton men was very different from that of our own players. They were almost without exception tall and muscular, while the majority of our twenty-five are small and light, but possess the merit of being up to much more than they look.

Very few were the preliminaries, and they were quickly agreed upon. The Princeton captain, for some reason or other, gave up every point to our men without contesting one. The only material points were, that Princeton gave up "free kicks," whereby a player, when he catches the ball in the air is allowed to kick it without hindrance. On the other hand, our practice of "babying" the ball on the start was discarded, and the ball was mounted, in every instance, by a vigorous "long kick."

Princeton won the toss, and chose the first mount, rather oddly, since it had been agreed to start the ball against the wind. At 3 P.M., the game was called. The Princetonians suffered from making a very bad "mount," or "buck" as they call it; the effects of which were not remedied before the sides closed, and after a brief struggle, Rutgers drove it home, and won, amid great applause from the crowd. The sides were changed, Rutgers started the ball, and after a somewhat longer fight, Princeton made it a tie by a well directed kick, from a gentleman whose name we don't know, but who did the best kicking on the Princeton side.

To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor, for every game was like the one before. There was the same head-long running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking. In every game the cool goal-tenders saved the Rutgers goal half a dozen times; in every game the heavy charger of the Princeton side overthrew everything he came in contact with; and in every game, just when the interest in one of those delightful rushes at the fence was culminating, the persecuted ball would fly for refuge into the next lot, and produce a cessation of hostilities until, after the invariable "foul," it was put in straight.

Well, at last we won the match, having won the 1st, 3d, 5th, 6th, 9th, and 10th games; leaving Princeton the 2d, 4th, 7th and 8th. The seventh game would probably have been added to our score, but for one of our players, who, in his ardor, forgot which way he was kicking, a mistake which he fully atoned for afterward.

To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was their organization, for which great praise is due to the Captain, Leggett, '72. The right men were always in the right place.

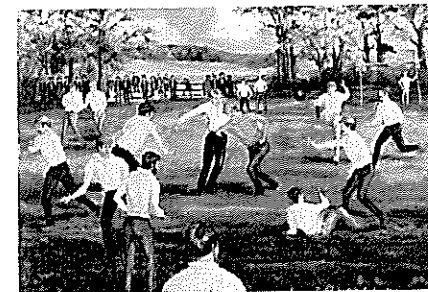

After the match, the players had an amicable "feed" together, and at 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, but thirsting to beat us next time, if they can.

PRINCETON vs. RUTGERS

The second of the three games of Foot Ball between Princeton and Rutgers was won by the former at their ball-grounds, on Saturday, the 13th inst. Eight out of fifteen was the game, but as Princeton won the first eight the other innings were not played. The style of playing differs, materially, in the two Colleges.

A fly, or first bound catch, entitles to a "free kick," a la Princeton. We bat with hands, feet, head, sideways, backwards, any way to get the ball along. We must say that we think our style much more exciting, and more as Foot Ball should be. After the regular game two innings were played after our fashion, and we won them. It is but fair to our twenty-five to say that they never have practised the "free-kick" system. At half-past six we sat down to a very fine supper, prepared for us by our hosts. Speeches and songs, accompanied, of course by the study of practical gastronomy, passed the time pleasantly until the evening train bore us Brunswickwards. We hope soon to welcome Princeton to New-Brunswick for the third game, and beat them. Their cheer, sounding as if they meant to explode, but for a fortunate escape of air, followed by a grateful yell at the deliverance of such a catastrophe, still sounds in our ears as we thank them for their hospitality. If we must be beaten we are glad to have such conquerors.

William Boyd, Rutgers Class of 1932, painted his impression of the Rutgers-Princeton game of 1869 after extensive research. It hangs in the living room of his home in Trenton.

Centennial Mementos

The painting (Page 38) by Arnold Friberg, an artist commissioned by Chevrolet, is one of four which make up the Chevrolet Sports Art Collection. The four paintings, completed just before the Centennial year in honor of football's 100th birthday, are available in reproductions, as are a number of other mementos from the L. G. Balfour Company.

The four prints are $3.00 per set. Other items available are: college song album, $1.00; bronze medallion, $6.00; bronze coin, $2.00; assorted jewelry (cuff links, tie bar, etc.), $3.00 each. For information, write: L. G. Balfour Co., Box 11608, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111. The medallion is pictured on the cover.

RUTGERS CENTENNIAL MEMENTOS

The Rutgers University Bookstore has Centennial plates and beer mugs, plus book matches, and book covers, all with Rutgers-Princeton seals and designs. The "first-game plate" and "first-game mug" are $4.95 each, plus a mailing charge of 50 cents. For information, write: Rutgers University Bookstore, New Brunswick, N. J. 08903.
